

Expression of Interest – Director Positions (x3) Queensland South Native Title Services - Board

27 April 2021

The Queensland South Native Title Services (QSNTS) Board of Directors invites applications to fill three (3) new positions for Board Directors. Based in Brisbane, QSNTS is the native title service provider for two thirds of Queensland. We assist traditional owners in realising their native title aspirations through statutory services, capacity development and advocacy for system reform.

Directors are appointed on a volunteer basis for a three year term, with expenses reimbursed.

Under the QSNTS Constitution, a majority of Board Directors are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people and accordingly, on this occasion to comply with the terms of the QSNTS Constitution, a minimum of two (2) positions must be filled by candidates of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent as it is a genuine occupational requirement under Section 25 of the Anti-Discrimination Act (Qld) 1991.

Key criteria are:

- Knowledge of native title and contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander issues, and a commitment to the principles of advocacy and self-determination;
- Demonstrated abilities in decision-making, and the provision of leadership and strategic direction;
- Experience in strategic planning, policy development and high-level decision making. Experience in a Director role will be highly regarded; and
- A background in one of more of the following areas: Marketing, Communications, Government Relations and Strategy.

To apply for this position, please provide by close of business, Friday, 7 May 2021

1. Your current resume, and
2. A cover letter not exceeding two pages demonstrating how you meet the key criteria. Please note:
 - This response must include any affiliation or involvement you have with native title group(s) that could be perceived as a conflict to your role on the QSNTS Board.
 - If you hold a position as a Queensland or Federal Public Servant you must declare any involvement with Native Title in Queensland.

Please send your application to:
